

STAT

Thank you for your letter of 24 July offering your services as contact with an individual whom you feel might be of value to this Agency.

I am sure that you will understand that it is not possible for us to give any specific consideration to the proposition you have made without more information, including the name and actual location of the individual you have referred to. If you can furnish us with this information, we will certainly investigate possibilities.

The interest which prompted your letter is very much appreciated.

Sincerely,

via ER 8/2/50
